Receives Freedom Award

Hoover Warning to Nation Same Speech He Made 27 Years Ago

VALLEY FORGE, Pa. (AP) — Former President Herbert Hoover surprised an audience today by delivering a speech in which he warned that the nation was in "an hour of unusual stress and trial"—then confessed it was the same speech he had made 27 years ago.

Hoover, here to receive the highest award in the ninth annual Freedom Foundation awards program, said in the speech that the United States was "beset with difficulties and confusions." But he said the crisis was only a "passing trial," from which the nation would emerge stronger in the future.

Then, at the conclusion of his prepared text, he admitted he had made the same speech, "with slight elimination of less pertinent paragraphs," on May 30, 1931, when the world "was in the depths of the greatest depression in our history."

That depression, he said, was "an inheritance from mistakes in the peace and aftermath of destruction from the first world war. Likewise," he said, "we now inherit the mistakes of the peace and the aftermaths of destruction from the second world war."

"Our people are today again confused and some are discouraged," Hoover said. "But we rallied to a period of greatness after the depression of the 1930s as we will again today."

Hoover received $5,000 and the special George Washington honor medal for "his wisdom and devoted service to the republic of the United States."

Recipients of four special freedom leadership awards were the Rev. Frederick Brown Harris, chaplain of the U. S. Senate; Lt. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, director of selective service; Gen. Curtis E. LeMay, Air Force vice chief of staff, and Charles Stewart Mott, businessman.

Hundreds of individuals and organizations were named in the annual list made public on George Washington's birthday.

The Illinois recipients included: Southern Illinois University at Carbondale, second place award for college campus program, "How SIU Serves Its Region." SIU received $100 and George Washington honor medal.

Granite City Senior High School, principal school award.

National Conference of Christians and Jews of Kankakee, second place award for community program, "Youth Conference on Human Relations." It received $100 and George Washington honor medal.

Caterpillar Tractor Co., Peoria, George Washington honor medal award for company employee publication, "News and Views." An identical award goes to Karl J. Wheatley, editor.

Les Immel, Peoria Star Journal, George Washington honor medal award for cartoon, "The Right Hand of Democracy."

George Magenheimer, Peoria, George Washington honor medal award for editorial, "In the American Way."

Rockford Chamber of Commerce, George Washington honor medal award in community program category for its over-all program.

Morse Asks ICC Investigation

Probers to Question Attorney, Accused 'Fixer' in TV Channel Case

WASHINGTON (AP) — House investigators today prepared to enter the crucial phase of their inquiry into a suggested "payoff" to FCC Commissioner Richard A. Mack in the award of a Miami television channel to National Airlines.

The House subcommittee on legislative oversight will call Monday Coral Gables, Fla., at attorney Thurman A. Whiteside, who has been accused of being a "fixer" and giver of $2,650 to Mack.

Whiteside, waiting to testify for a week, declined to comment on the hearings or what he will say. However, he pointed out that he is appearing voluntarily "at the committee's invitation" and is not under subpoena.

When the charges were first leveled by former committee counsel Bernard Schwartz, Whiteside called Schwartz a "liar." Both he and Mack have said the money was a loan and Mack has invited the investigators to inspect his financial records.

Subcommittee chairman Owen Harris (D-Ark.) said Mack would follow Whiteside to the stand either on Tuesday or Wednesday.

At the same time, Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore.) renewed his call for a Senate investigation of independent agencies and suggested two cases involving the Interstate Commerce Commission (ICC) should be high on the list.

Morse Questions Jobs

He questioned the "propriety" of former ICC Chairman Owen Clarke becoming a vice president of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad after leaving the ICC. He said Edward M. Reidy, who was ICC general counsel during a case involving the Southern Pacific Railroad, later resigned and became the railroad's attorney when it appealed the ICC decision to the Supreme Court.

PTA FOUNDERS DAY speaker Monday evening at the Harrisburg Junior high school will be Dr. Claude J. Dykhouse, associate professor of education at Southern Illinois University. He is a specialist in secondary school curriculum and is interested in PTA leadership in the schools. He joined the SIU faculty in 1947. Dr. Dykhouse will speak on "Sputnik Age Curriculum." The Founders day meeting will begin at 7:45 p. m. and the public is invited.

Eisenhower Lax On Safe Hunting

THOMASVILLE, Ga. (AP) — President Eisenhower played loose with safety rules Friday in leading a colorful expedition in search of quail.

At one point the President climbed into a mule-drawn wagon, placed his shotgun butt on the floor, and pointed the weapon variously at his own head, his host, former Treasury Secretary George Humphrey, and a Secret Service agent.

Reporters on hand for the hunt said they believed his performance was not so much a serious violation of safety rules as a display of impatience with having to submit to questioning and photography.

It was the reporters' first opportunity to talk with the President since his last press conference on Jan. 15.

At one point he smiled and said, "by golly, it is something when you have to make this a news event to write about."

He appeared pale, but generally in good spirits, despite his impatience.

Together the President and Humphrey bagged 10 birds.

Only Dim Hope In Fight to Get Rubber Plant

Davenport, Poston Receive Little Encouragement

Only a dim flicker of hope remained today in the county's battle to secure the Dayton Rubber company plant.

Robert S. Davenport of Harrisburg, chairman of the county's Industrial committee of the Saline Valley Development Association, phoned here last night from Dayton, Ohio, to say that it would take a miracle to pull the plant here now. The board is scheduled to make its decision Monday.

Davenport and Richard Poston, head of the Community Development department of Southern Illinois University, who accompanied him for conferences at Springfield, Chicago and Dayton, were scheduled to fly home today.

Many contacts were made yesterday in hopes of keeping the Saline county site in the running and there were encouraging reports. But at Dayton, it was indicated that Harrisburg would not be chosen.

It was reported that Davenport and Poston had conferences at Dayton with a director who lived there, with the executive vice president of the plant and with L. P. Kennedy, the man Dayton sent out to look at prospective sites and make recommendations. Apparently the word the local representatives got from them was not a bit encouraging.

Cong. Kenneth J. Gray yesterday afternoon wired Don Williams, Harrisburg's representative on the SVDA executive board, and his telegram stated:

"I have contacted other members of the board at Dayton Rubber and things look more favorable. I have an appointment to talk with Mr. Freeland (chairman of the board) tomorrow. Other contacts proved fruitful including those made by my colleagues from Ohio."

But last night Davenport's words were not encouraging.

Try to Spike Guns

GOP Senators Challenge Truman To Ban Pessimism in Speech

WASHINGTON (AP)—An ebullient Harry S. Truman tonight serves up to a $100-a-plate Democratic dinner a new "give 'em hell" blast at the Eisenhower administration in the merrily stewing congressional campaign.

While the former President got ready to turn loose what he said would be a real "spasm," some top Republicans were trying to spike his guns.

Senate GOP Leader William F. Knowland and three other senators issued open letters challenging Truman in his speech to turn his back on the "professional pessimism" of some Democrats.

"Are you going to follow the lead of these members of your party and sell America short before the world," the letter asked, "or will you reject this completely negative tactic?"

Recall Truman Remark

The senators charged that unemployment, a key issue in the campaign, was far worse under the Democratic administration that it is today. They reminded Truman that he said in 1950 the economy could support from three to five million jobs.

The Democratic National Committee Friday issued a resolution accusing President Eisenhower of employing a "Hoover-like approach" to attack what it called "the depression now gripping the country."

While engaged like Republicans in some intra-party bickering, Democrats were suffused with confidence at the wind up of the two-day meeting about prospects of enlarging their congressional majorities come Nov. 4.

Sen. George A. Smathers (D-Fla.), chairman of the Senatorial Campaign Committee, told the national committee that there was no doubt that the Democrats would gain at least six Senate seats this year. He said they might pick up 10 or 11 to increase their present 49 to 47 majority in the Senate.

Unusual Plant at Stroub Home in Liberty

MRS. JOHN WARREN, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Stroub, takes a look at the unusual plant at home of parents in Liberty community.

An unusual bulb makes its home at the J. B. Stroub home in Liberty community.

This bulb, when planted in the summer, has green foliage. It has a stem and leaves which form an umbrella-like shape. But it has no flower.

But in the house in the winter, just lying in a dish without dirt or a bit of water, the thing springs up with stem, leaves and some sort of flower in the center.

The Stroub family doesn't know what it has. The members just know that every year for years it has done the same thing both summer and winter.

Mrs. Stroub has had the bulb for five years. Before that Mr. Stroub's mother had it for quite a long time.

One other thing about the plant makes it peculiar. When it has bloomed out it doesn't smell like roses or honeysuckle but it gives off an offensive odor—something like old glue.

The Stroub would sure like to know the name of the bulb they have.

Service Stations Burglarized

City Policeman Tom Gram today reported the burglaries last night of Joe Bishop's Texaco service station on Route 45 in east Harrisburg and Wiley's D-X station at Poplar and Granger.

Officer Gram said that about $40 was missing from Wiley's. At Bishop's the place was ransacked and the only thing missing was a small amount of change from vending machines. The machine coin boxes had been emptied yesterday.

Leopold to Give Book Revenue to Help Juveniles

CHICAGO (AP)—Nathan Leopold has announced plans to turn over the proceeds of his autobiography to the society that awarded him the "mercy I did not show."

Through his attorney, Elmer Gertz, Leopold said the bulk of revenue earned from his book will be donated to the cause of helping disturbed children and fighting juvenile delinquency.

The book, "Life Plus 99 Years," is due for publication March 6, roughly the same time Leopold will be released from Stateville Penitentiary near Joliet, Ill.

Leopold's autobiography is his personal account of the "Crime of the Century," the senseless slaying of a 14-year-old boy in 1924.

The 33-year-old convict tells how he and his adored friend, Richard Loeb, tried to demonstrate their contempt for ordinary standards of behavior by murdering a child at random.

Leopold was 19, Loeb, 18, and both were intellectually gifted and wealthy. Believing themselves apart from and above society, they attempted the "perfect crime."

A neighbor boy, Bobby Franks, was the victim of their "superman" theories. The pair abducted Bobby and slew him with a chisel. They were captured within three days because Leopold left his glasses at the scene of the crime.

Mobile X-Ray Schedule

Make plans now to visit the Mobile X-ray unit on one of the following dates scheduled for Saline county.

The unit will be in Saline county this year on March 4-8 from 10 a. m. to 1 p. m. and from 2 p. m. to 5 p. m. each day. The unit will be located at the courthouse in Harrisburg on all five days.

This program is sponsored by the Egyptian Health Department and the Saline County TB association.

The goal of the county-wide chest X-ray program is the X-raying of every resident 15 years of age or over.

The Health Department states: "You may ask why X-ray the apparently healthy? Did you know that people can look and feel well and still have tuberculosis? Did you know that TB may have no outward symptoms in its early stage? By the time the symptoms which we all recognize appear—loss of weight, coughing—chances are the disease is in an advanced state, difficult to cure. Did you know that any active case of TB can spread germs?"

Whatever the outcome of a person's chest X-ray, he has nothing to lose and everything to gain. If his X-ray is clear, he will know his lungs are healthy. If tuberculosis is discovered before his illness has become serious, he can be cured. X-ray program officials report that the majority of cases found during such a project are in an early stage. And the earlier tuberculosis is found, the easier it is to cure and the quicker the patient can return to a normal useful life.

The X-ray is free, and no disrobing is necessary. It only takes a few minutes of time.

Sec'y Rejects Group's Request That He Resign

Says He Believes Farmers, All America Wants His Program

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Ben F. Jensen (R-Iowa) said today he wants Agriculture Secretary Ezra Taft Benson to resign "for the good of the farmer."

Benson Friday rejected the hopes of a sizable group of Midwest Republican congressmen that he would resign. He issued a formal statement following a visit from Reps. A. L. Miller (R-Neb.) and Walter H. Judd (R-Minn.).

Benson said he believes the farmers "and all America" want his farm program and he won't step out of office out of "concern for political fortunes of individuals."

Nettled by the implication of Benson's statement, Jensen declared "He doesn't dare place me in that category. If he does I'll tell him off plenty. I want him to resign for the good of the farmer. I'm putting the welfare of our farmers ahead of Republican politics or any other kind of politics."

Miller announced plans to go over Benson's head directly to President Eisenhower. He said he would advise his colleagues to "take a group of three to five and get an appointment with the President as soon as possible."

He said the President would be told that keeping Benson in office might "cause the defeat" of 10 to 25 GOP house members this year.

Miller and Judd had called on the secretary to tell him he has become "a symbol of low prices for farmers, rightly or wrongly." They said the people of the politically potent farm belt are "quite concerned," and agriculture is "sick" and needs new blood.

They said they did not ask Benson directly to resign but left little doubt they felt he should quit to help save Republican seats in November.

Their visit came after a meeting Thursday of more than a score of Midwest GOP congressmen concerned over the near-defeat of Republican Alfred Quie in Minnesota's special congressional election last Tuesday. In a traditionally Republican district, Quie won by fewer than 700 votes. His opponent, Democrat Eugene Foley, had conducted a down-with-Benson campaign.

Benson's statement said he intended to stay on the job and fight for the President's program of flexible price supports.

"I will continue to pursue a course which I believe is best for our farmers and fair to all our people," he said. "As long as God gives me strength, I shall continue to do all within my power to help our farmers..."

In announcing plans to take the issue directly to the White House, Miller noted that Benson said in his statement that he was a loyal Republican.

"His loyalty may cause the defeat of Republicans," Miller said. "That's distorting loyalty."

Jensen said he has never asked that President Eisenhower fire Benson—and won't do so now. He indicated he didn't think such a move would accomplish anything.

Eisenhower told a Republican meeting only last month he felt that Benson and all his other cabinet officers were doing a good job and he had no plans for replacing any of them.

Other congressional news:

Gas: The GOP Senatorial Campaign committee "repudiated" the way Texas Republicans solicited contributions to the now-famed $100,000 Houston, Tex., dinner honoring House GOP Leader Joseph W. Martin Jr. Committee Chairman Andrew F. Schoepel (R-Kan.) announced after a two-hour committee meeting that "no part of the funds" would be offered to the Senatorial group. But Schoepel said he hoped Texas Republicans would contribute through more usual channels.

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.
Psalm 1.

Men who have deeply sinned and who have forfeited their lives in consequence sometimes turn to God as a last resort. If He is a safe resort in life's extremities, we can escape those extremities by committing our ways to Him.

SIU Country Column

By ALBERT F. MEYER

Paul Lamendola, district forester at Murphysboro, stopped by Southern Illinois University a few days ago to pass along some additional information about forest tree seedlings that farmers may plant in this area on land not suited for grain and forage crops or pasture.
There has been discussion in this column about some of the hardwood species that are well suited to the area. Lamendola reports that the state nurseries already have sold out their current supply of cottonwood, red oak, and multi-flora rose seedlings and that sycamore and bald cypress are in short supply.

Still in good supply but moving fast, are the pines—shortleaf, loblolly, red, white, jack, and Scotch.
The latter is a good seedling for producing Christmas trees as a farm crop, selling at $10 per thousand and seedlings at the state forest tree nurseries. Jack and some red pines sell for the same price. White pine and some red pines sell at $15 and $20 per thousand, depending on size and age.

The discussion here is going to be centered on loblolly and short-leaf pines which are well suited to the poor upland soils abounding in some of the rougher parts of the region. Both belong in the group of trees known as southern yellow pine.

The shortleaf pine is found growing in the natural state along a narrow strip in the Pine Hills area of Union County. Both kinds of pines have been planted rather extensively in Southern Illinois since the early 1930s and some of the earlier plantations will not need to stand many more years before they will have trees of sawlog size.
The growth rate is rather fast and both species may be planted successfully in competition with broomsedge, moderate weed and grass cover, or in scattered low brush. Lamendola says one stand of loblolly pine grew 41 feet high in 17 years.

Loblolly and shortleaf pine produce an excellent general utility wood. The lumber is used mostly for building material, including millwork. Some goes into boxes and crates. Pulpwood will be a large item in the future demand for these kinds of pine forests in Southern Illinois. Their use for posts and poles also may be expected to increase because the wood of both species may be easily treated for preservation.

Approximately 1,000 seedlings are required to plant one acre if spacings are between six and seven feet. Loblolly and shortleaf pine seedlings cost $5 per thousand at the state nurseries. Orders ought to be mailed to the state forester, State Office Building, Springfield, along with the legal description of the area that will be planted—the quarter, section, township, and range. The minimum order accepted is 500 seedlings. Farmers may

DIXON SPRINGS

University of Illinois Experiment Station

(A round-up of the week's work, activities, and observations at the University of Illinois Dixon Springs Experiment Station near Robbs in southern Illinois, prepared by H. A. Cate.)

While digging through some records of experiments we came across one on soiling made during the summer of 1956. Soiling, or "zero grazing," is the practice of cutting green forage crops and feeding them to livestock. It is not a new practice by any means. It was probably the feeding method when the only cutting instrument was a stone knife. Almost every farm-reared man, however long he has been away from the farm, remembers cutting green corn with a corn knife and throwing the fresh choppings over the fence to the cattle on poor pasture. Soiling has always been a limited, emergency practice. But more recently the advent of field choppers has made soiling a more important part of the farming operation for some farmers.

Advantages

The advocates of soiling or "zero grazing" claim many advantages for it. They say that it reduces trampling and waste of pasture, reduces fencing costs, makes weed control easier especially in the fencerows, makes shade and water easier to supply and helps to control bloat. Stock spend less time walking and more time eating, do not soil the grass with droppings and do not selective-graze, making it easier to maintain desirable pasture mixtures. You may think of many more advantages.

Disadvantages

Soiling has some disadvantages too. One is increased labor. In the 1956 experiment on the Station,

34 ewes and their lambs were served fresh chopped pasture once a day. But it took about three hours a day to chop, haul and feed the forage. Then there were rainy days when the tractor and chopper stuck in the field.

Another disadvantage is that the manure from confined stock needs to be spread on the fields. But the biggest disadvantage in our experiment was that the sheep flock did not do as well on the fresh chopped feed. The lambs lost weight while their counterparts on pasture were gaining normally.
Results from soiling experiments at other Stations vary. Some claim additional milk or meat production; some report reduced production.

IF

Our suggestion to any who may be planning soiling—and it does have advantages—would be first to check with several farmers who have tried it. Find out what they think of it. Second, make sure that the increase you expect to get from it is worth the extra labor and machinery cost. A recent New Jersey test reported an increase in milk production, but feeding fresh chop to 50 cows added more than three hours of labor a day. Third, make sure that the forage to be chopped is of the highest quality.
Fourth, consider your land scarce and high and your labor plentiful and cheap.

Consider Remodeling Before Building On The Farm

A good remodeling job might make some unused space usable on many Illinois farms.

Don Jedebe, extension agricultural engineer at the University of Illinois College of Agriculture, suggests that farmers look over their old barns carefully to determine the possibilities for remodeling before deciding to build new ones.

If you are wondering whether to remodel a barn, Jedebe suggests that you ask yourself these questions: Is the location satisfactory? Will all the space be usable? Will the barn be large enough to handle the enterprise?
Can it be adapted to mechanical methods? Are the foundation, roof and framework in good condition?

You can afford to repair or replace either the roof or the foundation, but probably not both. The framework must be in good condition or easily repairable. A rotten beam in an old post-and-beam barn is not easily repaired, but broken floor joists are.

Compare new construction with remodeling costs. Estimate the remaining life of the old building after remodeling, and then decide which is the "best buy."

For more information on remodeling barns, ask your county farm adviser for a copy of "Farm Buildings Fact Sheet No. 6," or write directly to the Department of Agricultural Engineering, Urbana.

Report Effects of Federal Credit On Agriculture

URBANA—A University of Illinois agricultural economist today reported the effects of government credit programs on agriculture.

H. G. Halcrow, head of the department of agricultural economics, points out that by increasing the supply of credit and reducing its costs, federal credit programs have probably maintained a larger portion of resources in farming than would otherwise have occurred.

The chief effects of federal mortgage lending occurred through expansion in Federal Land Bank loans in 1934-35. Later expansion of production credit and rural electrification especially in World War II contributed to development of agricultural resources.

Private credit agencies have been greatly affected by growth of federal credit activity according to Halcrow. Federal credit has had longer maturities, more liberal interest rates, and tended to increase the average size mortgage loan. More uniform credit costs for farmers have resulted, especially in the South and West, where reductions in interest rates have taken place.

Commercial banks and life insurance companies have yielded some market position to publicly sponsored credit agencies. However, they have met the increasingly liberal terms and loans carrying lower interest charges and longer maturities.

These trends in federal credit are revealed in a study on "Federal Lending, Its Growth and Impact" sponsored by the National Bureau of Economic Research, New York and to be published soon by Princeton University Press. Hal-crow was one of the three economists who participated in the investigation. Co-authors are R. J.
Saulnier, Columbia University and now chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisers, and N. H. Jacoby, dean of the Graduate School of Business, University of California at Los Angeles.

order seedlings until April 15 but in general ought to have their planting completed before that time.

Lamendola, like other foresters, points out that it is important to plant the right trees on the right ground. The hardwoods should be planted on the better sites, having some competition from brush, and pines put on the poorer land with moderate or less competition from weeds and low brush. Farmers who seek advice about planting or other forestry problems may contact their nearest farm forester. Those in Southern Illinois are located at Anna, Harrisburg, and Sparta.

Tips For Gardeners

Pruning Improves Fruit Quality, Condition

By FRANK W. OWEN
Fruit Crops Specialist
University of Illinois

URBANA — Better quality fruit with a brighter color results when fruit trees are pruned. Also, insect and disease damage is lessened because pruned trees can be more uniformly sprayed.

The best time to prune is during the latter part of the dormant season. Then the number of fruit buds that have survived the winter can be seen. This aids in determining how much and what kind of pruning should be done. Pruning too early may cause winter injury if extremely low temperatures occur afterwards.

When you start pruning, remember the following points:
Pruning reduces total growth.
Pruned trees grow more slowly because they have fewer leaves.
Leaves manufacture food for trees.
So a reduction in total leaf surface limits the food supply and reduces growth.

Pruning reduces the number of growing points. Remaining laterals (side branches) then grow faster. Increased vigor causes more leaves to grow on each lateral, but not enough to make up for foliage lost by pruning. As a result, the whole tree is smaller.

Pruning may be overdone. Over-pruning will reduce yields because it stimulates wood growth and delays formation of fruit buds.

Branches forming narrow angles to the tree trunk should be removed. The narrow angle causes a weak crotch because bark is caught at the union of the branch and trunk and prevents the two from growing together. If the angle is wide, the crotch tissue is formed entirely of wood and therefore has greater strength.

Upper branches shade out and starve lower ones. Branches above selected framework branches should be removed, allowing the lower ones to grow strong and healthy.

New York City boasted 10,000 telephones in 1888; today, it has 3,695,000.

Swedish Princess To Wed Pianist

STOCKHOLM — A member of the Swedish royal family said today that Sweden's Princess Margaretha and blue-blooded British jazz pianist Robin Douglas-Horne are engaged, with the approval of her family.

Margaretha's uncle, Prince Bertil — son of Sweden's King Gustav Adolf — confirmed engagement reports in an interview with the Stockholm newspaper Dagens Nyheter.

The official court spokesman indicated no official announcement will be made until after the arrival of Douglas-Horne here sometime next week.

Prince Bertil said he met secretly with Douglas-Horne in London Feb. 2 and then reported to King Gustav Adolf.

Princess Margaretha met Douglas-Horne last year while she was in London attending a nursing school. But her family poured cold water on the romance.

Then last Thursday the Swedish court made a surprise announcement that the young Englishman would come to Sweden on business and would see the princess while he was here.

Rites Monday for Ex-Gov. Green

CHICAGO — Funeral services for former Illinois Governor Dwight H. Green, who died Thursday at the age of 61, were scheduled Monday at the Cathedral of St. James.

Honorary pallbearers include Gov. Stratton, Sen. Everett M. Dirksen (R-Ill.) and Circuit Judge John P. Dempsey.

Green's family has requested that memorial contributions be sent to a cancer research fund in his name at Presbyterian-St. Luke's Hospital.

Selected One of Royal Court at Blackburn Formal

Charles Cummins

Chosen as a member of the royal court for the annual Valentine formal that was held at Blackburn College, Carlinville, on Feb. 15, was Charles Cummins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cummins, 1200 South Granger, Harrisburg.

As is traditional, this court consisted of four girls and four boys chosen from the school's freshman class. Through an all student election a royal couple was selected from this group to reign at the Valentine festivities. The high light of the formal was the crowning of this couple—Joanne Kedrick of Elmwood Park as Valentine Queen and John Hughes of Lafayette as Valentine King — by Dr. Robert P. Ludlum, president of the college. This ceremony followed the grand march which was led by the members of the court.

Since enrolling in Blackburn College, Cummins has been most active in various campus organizations. He has participated in the intramural sports competitions and is presently a member of the varsity basketball team. In addition he is a member of the house council in the men's dormitory.

Sergeant Begins Serving Five-Year Sentence

WASHINGTON — M. Sgt. Roy A. Rhodes today began serving a five-year hard labor sentence for conspiring to commit espionage under the lure of sex, vodka and rubles.

Rhodes allegedly gave information to the Russians while running the American embassy garage in Moscow.

A 10-man Army court martial board also sentenced the 40-year-old married sergeant to a dishonorable discharge and forfeiture of all pay and allowances. The sentence is automatically subject to review by the Army judge advocate general.

Chief defense lawyer Lt. Col. John F. Hummel told the court before Rhodes was convicted Friday that Rhodes never would have been tried except he was "too stupid to protect himself." He said Rhodes was largely implicated by four confessions he made to FBI agents and at the spy trial last year of Soviet agent Col. Rudolf I. Abel.

Hummel said if Rhodes had asked for immunity at the Abel trial "we would never be here today." No evidence was produced at the trial to indicate Rhodes gave the Russians any information of a secret nature. The confessions read into the record said he relayed some data about the habits and activities of embassy personnel. The prosecution based its case on picturing Rhodes as a small cog in a large spy ring.

Hope to Complete SVDA Fund Drive in Carrier Mills by Monday Night

Cold weather slowed down the work of collecting funds for the Saline Valley Development Association in Carrier Mills and plans for completing the drive were moved forward a week.

Freeman O'Keefe, chairman of the SVDA fund drive in Carrier Mills, had hoped the drive could be completed by last Monday, Feb. 17, but the bad weather kept the workers from contacting everyone and the completion date was moved to Monday, Feb. 24. The Lions club is sponsoring the drive which should be completed by the time of the Lions meeting Monday night. Any member of the Lions club will accept contributions for the SVDA.

9,985 Employed by University of Illinois

URBANA — CHAMPAIGN, Ill. — University of Illinois employees, both academic and non-academic, now total 9,985, an all-time high for the university, Comptroller Herbert O. Farber said today.

Statistics, based on full-time equivalents and including all who are paid by state appropriations and University trust funds, have shown a steady increase since 1932-33, Farber said.

The year-by-year figures:
1932-33—8,295
1933-34—8,310
1934-35—8,708
1935-36—9,213

Girl Killed, Eight Hurt in Auto Crash

DIXON, Ill. — Wanda Howard, teen-age daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Howard, Dixon, was killed and eight other youths injured in a two-car collision Friday on U. S. Alt. 30 west of here.

Miss Howard was a passenger in a car driven by Bob Maulkins, Dixon, that was returning from the Dixon-De Kalb High School basketball game at Dixon.

Other Dixon teen-agers injured were Ann Mall, Dianne Roberts, Gordon Nicklaus and Robert Binkley. The driver of the other car, Walter Klinger, Rock Falls, and his passenger, Phyllis Missini, Sterling, also were injured.

them from the gallows, but each was given a "life plus 99 years" sentence. Loeb was killed 12 years later in a prison fight.

Despite the injunction of the trial judge that the pair never be freed, the state parole board Thursday decided that Leopold had shown sufficient remorse and was rehabilitated during his 34 years in prison. On hearing the news, Leopold pledged himself to justify the rehabilitation theory for the sake of his fellow convicts.

Gertz said Friday that Leopold's book could be a financial success or a failure.

"I don't think it will be a flop," he said. "If Leopold makes money from it, he intends to devote much of it to philanthropic purposes."

As for possible royalties from movie studios, Gertz was emphatic. "Leopold has made it clear that he wants to seek anonymity—to get lost. Participating in movies isn't getting lost," he said. Leopold is by no means poor, Gertz said, but is not planning a life of ease. Instead his wish is to take a $7.50 to $10 a month job as an X-ray technician at a Puerto Rican mission.

Among his assets when he leaves Stateville, Leopold will have $25 from the state, $649.50 donated to him over the years, a bequest of more than $10,000 left by an aunt, and a $2,000 annual income from a trust fund. Another $35,000 Leopold had in his own name in 1924 was given to his father, Gertz said, "because he never dreamed he would leave Stateville."

Hawks Defeat Celtics, 119-100, Clinch Title Tie

By United Press

The New York Knickerbockers, their hopes for a playoff spot in the Eastern Division shattered by an overtime loss Friday night, play host to the Syracuse Nationals at Madison Square Garden this afternoon in the National Basketball Association's nationally televised game of the week.

The Warriors defeated the Knicks, 117-111, in overtime at Camden, N. J., Friday night to drop the New Yorkers three and one-half games behind the third-place Warriors. New York has nine games left to play to Philadelphia's 12.

Other action today finds the Cincinnati Royals at Minneapolis and the St. Louis Hawks, who clinched at least a tie for the Western Division title, at Detroit.

The Hawks whipped the Boston Celtics, 119-100, Friday night to clinch the tie and gained their fourth win of the season against the same number of losses with the team they more than likely will meet in the playoff round. Bob Pettit was the big man for the Hawks with 29 points.

The Pistons moved into second place in the Western Division by defeating the Cincinnati Royals, whom they replaced, 109-107, in Friday's other action. George Yardley, the NBA's top scorer, canned 32 points to lead the Detroit attack.

Mental Institutions Overcrowded, IPAC Reports to Stratton

CHICAGO — The Illinois Public Welfare Commission submitted a report to Gov. Stratton Friday urging action to correct overcrowding in the state's 14 mental institutions.

The commissioners said that, according to standards established by the state Health Department, the hospitals are 42 per cent overcrowded and 50 per cent understaffed.

There are only 13 full time, certified psychiatrists and 64 psychiatric social workers to run the institutions, the commission said.

As a result of these conditions, the board said, more than 1,200 children will have to wait from one to three years for treatment.

In addition, "there is an ever-present danger of disaster inherent in the deadly combination of antiquated, unsafe buildings and serious overcrowding."

Illinois, which ranks third in the nation in population, is 39th in the amount it spends for care of the mentally retarded, the board said.

Maneuvers Kill Five

STUTTGART, Germany — Four American soldiers and an 11-year-old German girl were killed in accidents during the recent U. S. Army Sabre Hawk maneuvers, it was announced today. Army officials said the accident toll was about half the normal rate. Some 125,000 men and thousands of tanks, trucks and airplanes ranged over a 5,000-square mile area for 10 days.

In Memoriam
In loving memory of our dear daughter, Mrs. Bernice Swan, who passed away Feb. 22, 1954. Dear Bernice we have missed you.

Since from earth you have passed away,
Sad our hearts, but sweet the memory
As we think of you today.

We who have known and loved you,
And whose parting brought sad tears,
Will cherish your memory all ways.

To brighten the drifting years
In our hearts is a lonely spot
Your bright face used to fill
But nothing can take your memory.

That shines there and always will,
Your memory to us is a keep-sake
With which we will never part Though God has you in his keep.

We will have you in our hearts
Sadly missed by mother and dad,
Mr. and Mrs. Logan Dempsey.

In Memoriam
In loving memory of John Aldridge who passed away 2 years ago on Feb. 23, and Bessie Aldridge, who passed away 3 months ago Nov. 23.

We have suffered since we lost you.
Life will never be the same.

In our hearts your memory lingers, Sweetly, fond and true,
There is not a day dear Dad and Mom

That we do not think of you.
The children of John and Bessie Aldridge.

'The Church at Worship'

Matthew 18:19-20; John 4:23-24; Acts 1:12-14; Colossians 3:16-17 GOLDEN TEXT: "He said un to them, it is written, my house shall be called the house of pray er" (Matt. 21:13).

INTRODUCTION — Have you ever attempted to define the word "worship"? What does worship mean to you? Webster says that worship is the "act of paying divine honors to a deity; religious reverence and homage."
Worship is that, but it is more.

When one prays, he talks to God. When one reads the Bible, God talks to him. When one wor ships, he is concerned with God.
Worship is communion with God.
As one worships, he is delighted with the very thought of belong ing to God.
Worship usually causes us to think of the Sunday service: in a church. However, there is much that often takes place in these services that certainly is not wor ship. Jehovah is a God of order.
Where there is disorder, He is not present. In fact, many so called "prayers" are only words and never go higher than the ceiling.
This is especially true when one prays to be heard of men instead of God.

I PRAYING TOGETHER (Matt.
18:19-20)

What a glorious promise! Here we have the assurance that if a group of Christian people will gath er together and pray, that God will hear and answer their pray er. There is power in prayer!
There is much power in prayer where just a few Christians join together and pray for the same thing. God joins in such fellow ship and becomes a part of the group to add His power to their efforts. Failure is just not possi ble.

II WORSHIP IN SPIRIT AND TRUTH (John 4:23-24)

"God is a Spirit, and they that worship Him must worship Him in spirit and truth." (V. 24). Yes there is no room for shame and hypocrisy in a worship service.

God knows the mind and heart of every person. You may be able to fool the person nearest you, but you cannot fool God. He knows your spirit. Therefore, He knows whether or not you are worshipping "in Spirit and truth." Remember, true worship is communion with God. There can be no communion where there is hypocrisy.

III "WITH ONE ACCORD"
(Acts 1:12-14)

The disciples met in the upper room after the ascension. Jesus had promised that the Comforter would come and empower them.
Now, they were gathered togeth er all "in one accord." That is, they were together in mind and spirit.

Let any church family, or group of Christian people, gath er together, and be all "in one accord," and you will see great things take place. Such a church family just cannot fail, because God is in their midst. Where there is bickering, back-biting and dis sension, there can be no great power. Why? Because God is not present.

CONCLUSION — "GRACE OF GOD IN YOU" (Col. 3:16) When Christ really dwells in one's heart, there is a song in that heart. When one knows Christ as personal Savior, he has that "peace that passeth all under standing," that only Christ can give. It is one thing to sing a hymn in a church service or alone, but it is quite another thing to have a song in one's own heart placed there by Christ.
The Christian has his trials, tribulations and sorrows, but he has a song and a peace of which non-Christians know nothing.
Friend, if you are not a Chris tian, you are missing all that is worth while in this world and the world to come.

Not My will
...but Thine!

Christianity does not of fer escape from duty.
If it did, most of us would never find a seat in Church. The lazy and in different would be stand ing in line hours before we arrived.

Christianity does offer strength of purpose—the spiritual energy that trans forms duty into achieve ment!

God's purpose and the courage to fulfill it—these the Church reveals and imparts.

In this pre-Easter sea son of Lent the attention of mankind is focused again on the Cross of Christ... on His strength of purpose and all that He suffered for us... on God's Victory for men.

Our churches call us to the Faith which makes dif ficulty a challenge—dread, a stepping-stone—despair, a memory.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest fac tor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values.
Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and sup port the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4)
For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and ma terial support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Braves Sign Aaron, But Burdette, Schoendienst, Mathews Still Hold Out

By United Press

Quiet Henry Aaron, one of the biggest fish in the Milwaukee pond, was landed by the Braves today when the National League's Most Valuable Player agreed to terms.

The slender outfielder, who lets his bat do all his talking for him, settled 1958 contract terms with Milwaukee General Manager John Quinn Friday night in a brief telephone call from Jacksonville, Fla. Quinn also nailed catcher Del Crandall in a telephone call to Fullerton, Calif.

Aaron, who led the NL in homers with 44 in 1957, is believed to have consented to terms calling for a 1958 salary of $40,000. Aaron also batted in 132 runs last season and had a .322 batting average. His home run in a game against the St. Louis Cardinals clinched the flag for the Braves and Aaron went on to park his club to the world championship in the World Series with the New York Yankees.

The Braves still have 13 players to sign with the official opening of spring training only a week away. Among the unsigned are World Series hero Lew Burdette, who beat the Yankees three times, star second baseman Red Schoendienst and home run slugger Eddie Mathews. All three are holding out for big raises after banner seasons. Schoendienst and Mathews are believed to have earned $35,000 each last season while Burdette's salary is estimated at $20,000.

Meanwhile, star left handers Whitey Ford and Johnny Antonelli, both of whom signed a couple of notches last year, also agreed to terms.

Ford, who heads all active major league pitchers in winning percentage and earned run average, consented to the same salary he got last season after a huddle with New York Yankee player director Lee MacPhail at St. Petersburg, Fla.

Phoned Acceptance

Antonelli, who won only 12 games and lost 18 last season, telephoned his acceptance to San Francisco Giant Vice President Chub Feeney from his home in Rochester, N. Y. The tall left hander, the Giants' top pitcher since 1954 when he led the club to the NL pennant and the world championship, also signed for the same salary he got last year, around $25,000.

MacPhail got together with pitcher Bob Grim and star outfielder Mickey Mantle in an effort to line them up before March 1, but nothing came of the meetings. The Yankees still have nine players outside the fold.

Wildcats Trip Rosiclare, 85-64

Carrier Mills won from Rosiclare Friday night by a score of 85-64. With only three games remaining of their schedule Carrier Mills has a 20-1 record for the season.

The victory, gained on the Rosiclare floor, gave Carrier Mills a clean sweep of the home-and-home series, the 'Cats having won from Rosiclare in the season's opener by a 50-45 count.

Carrier Mills jumped out to a big 31-13 first quarter lead and made it stand up for victory.

Both clubs were strong at the free throw line, Rosiclare hitting 20 of 25 free throw attempts and Carrier Mills connecting on 27 of 35, including 16 of 19 in the first half. The winners shot 425 from the field and in the big first quarter swished the nets 11 times in 16 tries.

Vern Rollins led the scoring with 27 points. Donnie Seay was tops for Rosiclare with 18.

Tamms Player Hottest Candidate for Top High School Scorer

CHICAGO (UP) — The little town of Tamms, Ill., has its own candidate as the hottest "hot shot" scorer in high school basketball. Charley Vaughn of Alexander County Central High School has a three year total of 2,738 points and he dropped in another 377 as a freshman as icing to the cake. This tops the mark set recently by Norm Grow of Foley, Minn., who beat the record of 2,552 held by Wilt Chamberlain, now at the University of Kansas.

Pekin and Mattoon were battling for second place in the Big 12 Conference, as well as attempting to hold their positions among the top 15 teams in the state.

Local Shooting Cold in Final South Seven Tilt; Play at Anna Tonight

The Harrisburg Bull Dogs got their worst beating of the season last night when they were downed by the Rams at Mt. Vernon, 68-37, in the final South Seven basketball game of the year.

Tonight the locals wind up their schedule by playing a good Anna team at Anna.

Last night's drubbing was a little worse than the 72-46 pasting they got from Herrin here Dec. 13.

Cold, cold shooting brought on the havoc, as these figures plainly show.

For the first three quarters Harrisburg made but five field goals, two out of 11 shots the first quarter, two out of 12 the second and one out of 12 the third for 156 shooting. In the final frame they hit four out of 11 to bring up the game average to .209, with nine out of 43.

In the meantime Mt. Vernon was shooting a good 456, hitting 26 out of 57.

At the outset of the contest Harrisburg got numerous good shots but could not connect. As Mt. Vernon hit and pulled away in the scoring column the Bull Dog all-around game suffered and there was no contest at any time in the contest.

To the credit of Mount Vernon, it must be said the Rams threw the best defense against the Bull Dogs they have seen all year. But the Bull Dogs got a lot of good shots and could not make them.

Mt. Vernon led 16-6 at the end of the first quarter, 34-11 at the end of the half and 53-20 when the third period ended.
